COLLEGE HISTORY

Govt. Graduate College for Women Samanabad stands as a venerable bastion of education in Lahore, tracing its origins back to the distant annals of 1957. From its humble beginnings as an Intermediate College nestled in the heart of Gulberg, it has evolved into a towering beacon of learning and empowerment.

In a monumental move that underscored its commitment to excellence, the institution relocated to the vibrant locale of Samanabad in 1969. It was bestowed with the esteemed status of a graduate-level institution in 1971, cementing its reputation as a pioneer in women's education.

Through the decades, our college has remained steadfast in its dedication to fostering intellectual curiosity, nurturing talent, and empowering women. This institution was then elevated to Post-Graduate level in 2008 with the commencement of M.A English classes which were later on replaced by the four years B.S program in 2010. In the year 2015, the college also introduced BBA and B.Com: 4 years degree programme and B.Ed: 2 year degree programme. Nestled within the sprawling expanse of 12 acres, our premises stand as a testament to our enduring commitment to knowledge and progress.
